

Dardos: [REDACTED] escolhido para disputar Premier League em 2021

Antigo carpinteiro da [REDACTED] diz que está «nas nuvens»

O português [REDACTED] foi escolhido para disputar a Premier League de dardos em 2021, segundo anunciou esta segunda-feira a Professional Darts Corporation (PDC), um dia depois de terminado o Mundial da modalidade, em [REDACTED].

O jogador ribatejano foi eliminado pelo inglês [REDACTED] na terceira ronda do Campeonato do Mundo, conquistado por [REDACTED], mas as boas prestações alcançadas ao longo do ano valeram-lhe um dos seis wild cards para disputar a competição organizada pela [REDACTED].

«É uma grande notícia, porque se trata de uma Liga de primeira classe, onde só jogam os dez melhores jogadores de todo o mundo. Melhor do que isto não podia acontecer. Estou nas nuvens», disse [REDACTED] em declarações à [REDACTED].

A Premier League de dardos é uma competição exclusiva, na qual participam apenas os quatro primeiros classificados da Ordem de Mérito PDC, que engloba os resultados dos últimos dois anos, e seis wild cards escolhidos pela organização.

Darts: [REDACTED] selected for 2021 Premier League

- “Special One” makes 2021 Premier League line-up
- “I’m over the moon,” says [REDACTED]

The Professional Darts Corporation (PDC) has announced that Portuguese darts star, [REDACTED], has been included in the line-up for the 2021 Premier League, just a day after the final of the William Hill World Darts Championship.

The Portuguese came crashing out of the Worlds in the third round following a 4-0 defeat to [REDACTED], but his great form throughout 2020 was enough for him to earn one of the six wildcards on offer for the 2021 Premier League.

Speaking to [REDACTED], [REDACTED] said: “It’s wonderful news, because it’s a top-class league which only the ten best players in the world get to play in. This is the best thing that could possibly have happened to me. I’m over the moon.”

The Premier League is an exclusive competition, featuring only the top four players in the PDC Order of Merit and six wildcard holders chosen by the PDC.

«Para além de ter sido o quinto melhor do último ano, creio que a maior influência na decisão da organização foi ter ganho o Grand Slam [em novembro]. Isso ajudou-me bastante para ser selecionado para a Premier League», comentou o jogador natural da [REDACTED].

Desta forma, [REDACTED] vai competir com [REDACTED], além dos wild cards [REDACTED] e um último jogador que só será anunciado após o torneio The Masters, no final deste mês.

A Premier League 2021 estava agendada para ter início a 4 de fevereiro, mas foi adiada para data a determinar, segundo a organização, «nunca antes da Páscoa», devido à pandemia de covid-19.

Na competição, que teve a sua primeira edição em 2005, os participantes defrontam-se em duas fases de todos contra todos. No final da primeira fase, os dois últimos classificados são eliminados, e na segunda fase os quatro primeiros passam à final e os quatro últimos ficam pelo caminho.

A final é disputada pelos quatro melhores classificados na play-off night (noite de play-off) em sistema de eliminatória.

«Em primeiro lugar, nunca me passou pela cabeça que algum dia pudesse jogar a Premier League. Agora é tentar ganhar o máximo de jogos e confrontos possíveis. Se conseguir, quem sabe se poderemos voltar a falar de um novo título», admitiu o jogador português.

Em novembro de 2020, [REDACTED] tornou-se no primeiro estreado a vencer o

The Portuguese then went on to say: “As well as being the fifth-best player [in the world] over the past year, I think the biggest reason behind the organisation’s decision was that I won the Grand Slam [in November]. That really boosted my chances of being picked for the Premier League.”

“The Special One” will be pitted against the four qualifiers from the Order of Merit – [REDACTED] – and the five other wildcard winners in this year’s competition: [REDACTED] and another player who will be selected after The Masters, which takes place at the end of this month.

The much-anticipated tournament was originally due to start on 4 February, but it has been postponed due to Covid-19. Although the new start date has yet to be confirmed, the PDC has said that it will “not be before Easter.”

First held in 2005, the Premier League is played over two round-robin stages. The bottom two in the table will leave the competition at the end of the first, while the top four players at the end of the second stage will advance to the Play-Offs, a mini knock-out tournament staged on the final night of the event to determine the overall winner.

“Firstly, I must admit that I’ve never even thought about playing in the Premier League one day. I will just try to win as many games as possible. If I manage to win a few, who’s to say that I won’t win another title,” [REDACTED] said.

In November 2020, the Portuguese became the first-ever debutant to claim the Grand

Grand Slam da Professional Darts Corporation (PDC), ao bater o inglês [REDACTED], na final, por 16-12.

Foi o melhor resultado de sempre de um jogador de dardos português no circuito profissional, a juntar aos triunfos no European Darts Grand Prix, em outubro, e aos Players Championships de [REDACTED], em 2019.

[REDACTED], de 46 anos, natural da [REDACTED], ganhou o cartão de jogador do ProTour em 2019, ano em que deixou de lado a sua profissão de carpinteiro e passou a dedicar-se a tempo inteiro aos dardos.

Os resultados obtidos ao longo do último ano valeram-lhe o quinto lugar na Ordem de Mérito do Pro Tour, com um total de 63.500 libras em prémios (cerca de 70 mil euros), de acordo com o site da Professional Darts Corporation.

Nos últimos dois anos, [REDACTED] acumulou 314.250 libras (perto de 350 mil euros), que representam o 15.º lugar na Ordem de Mérito da PDC.

Slam title, defeating [REDACTED] 16-12 in the final.

This was the greatest achievement ever recorded by a Portuguese darts player on the professional circuit, along with his triumphs at the European Darts Grand Prix in October, and at the Players Championship events in [REDACTED] in 2019.

The 46-year-old was awarded a PDC ProTour Card in 2019, the same year that he left his job as a carpenter to pursue a career in professional darts.

[REDACTED]'s excellent form in 2020 catapulted him up to fifth place in the ProTour Order of Merit, having earned a total of £63,500 from Players Championship and European Tour events over the course of the year, according to the PDC's official website.

Over the last two years, the Portuguese has also earned £314,250 through his exploits in ranking events, propelling him up to 15th place in the PDC Order of Merit.

Snowboarding Review

El excepcional contacto con el suelo de este modelo versátil lo hace muy seguro y fluido en el canto. Se mantiene vivo a alta velocidad y da la máxima confianza en el freeride.

[REDACTED] sigue cumpliendo a la perfección el papel del mejor y más

This versatile model's excellent on-snow contact ensures a smooth, secure edge hold. The board remains lively at high speed and instils the utmost confidence in its users when freeriding.

[REDACTED] remains without doubt the best and most versatile freeride in the [REDACTED]

versátil freeride de la gama [REDACTED]. Esta versión de [REDACTED] se mantiene muy cercana a su hermana arqueada, con una sensación más lúdica y accesible. Por otro lado, la principal ventaja de [REDACTED] sigue siendo su excelente absorción del terreno y su suavidad. El canto invertido bajo los pies -Griptech- funciona perfectamente: el ajuste en el canto es impresionante y, sin embargo, sin agresividad; asegura el contacto con el suelo en toda su longitud. En un radio medio, basta con colocar la espátula y ésta se redondea sola. Añada a esto una buena respuesta al final de la curva para confirmar que el [REDACTED] no perturba sus cualidades de carving. Por otro lado, hace que la tabla sea más manejable, con un ollie fácil y efectivo, un toque de freestyle. Esto complementa perfectamente el confort y el contacto con la nieve que se espera de un verdadero freeride completo: se trata una vez más del [REDACTED] en todo su esplendor.

[REDACTED]

Es una backcountry muy completa con un excelente contacto con la nieve. Las espátulas ligeramente más flexibles son menos importantes en su comportamiento y hacen que sea accesible a un público más amplio.

[REDACTED], un valor seguro en el segmento de los polivalentes de [REDACTED], ha visto su shape evolucionar ligeramente este año. El público de este versátil estilo backcountry tiende a exigir cada vez más confianza, por lo que este es el trabajo que ha realizado [REDACTED]. El flex más bien flexible y uniforme gana un punto de rigidez entre los pies. A partir de ahora, las espátulas son proporcionalmente más range. Although the [REDACTED] version is very similar to the [REDACTED], it is more playful and easier to control. The [REDACTED]'s greatest feature, however, continues to be its excellent ground absorption and smoothness. The additional contact points under foot created by the board's sidecut design (Griptech technology) work perfectly, leading to a tremendous improvement in edge control, without the need to show aggression, and ensuring on-snow contact with the entire length of the board. To perform medium-radius turns, only on-snow contact with the spatula is required, which will carve into the snow by itself. The board also responds well when coming out of the turn, ensuring that the rocker does not impede its carving capabilities. This also makes the board easier to use, enabling a simple, yet effective ollie – a touch of freestyle. This perfectly complements the comfort and on-snow contact expected from a true absolute freeride. The [REDACTED] is yet another [REDACTED] board in all its glory.

[REDACTED]

The almost absolute backcountry with excellent on-snow contact. Its slightly more flexible spatulas have a lesser impact on its performance and make it user-friendly for a wider public.

The shape of the [REDACTED], a safe bet in [REDACTED]'s all-terrain snowboard range, has evolved slightly this year. Users tend to ask for greater confidence in this versatile backcountry, and this was [REDACTED]'s answer. Its rather variable, soft flex leads to slight stiffness between the feet. The spatulas are now proportionally more flexible than the centre, making it smoother and user-friendly for a wider public. By maintaining good on-snow contact, the board is suitable for use on all types of terrain, without compromising comfort.

flexibles que el centro, proporcionando así suavidad y accesibilidad a un público más amplio. La tabla mantiene su gran contacto con la nieve, lo que le permite manejar todo tipo de terreno sin perder la comodidad. Es una tabla con un soporte sólido pero sin necesidad de un flex rígido, lo que ayuda a trabajar sobre sus deformaciones y enriquece su pilotaje. Mediante el uso de la torsión, es fácil controlar y variar los radios. Este año encontramos de nuevo un backcountry excelente, más progresivo y fácil, con un ollie más suave. Esto le permite distinguirse mejor de la versión profesional más reactiva.

This board offers solid support without the need for a stiff flex, facilitating bending and enhancing steering. Through torsion, it is easy to control and steer radius turns. This year, we find yet again another excellent backcountry, which is steadier, easier to use, and with a smoother ollie, making it easier to distinguish this board from the more responsive professional version.

La contundencia que le falta al [REDACTED] la tiene [REDACTED] en la [REDACTED]

El delantero cedido por el [REDACTED] firma su mejor arranque goleador como profesional.

"[REDACTED] es un equipo contundente que aprovechó su situación, en el fútbol la contundencia paga. Hicimos un partido bueno, donde podemos llevarnos cosas y otras que hay que corregir. Nos faltó contundencia". El análisis de [REDACTED], entrenador del [REDACTED], sobre el partido fue claro.

La diferencia en la goleada ante el actual campeón de Europa estuvo en la diferencia de efectividad. El [REDACTED] marcó cuatro goles,

Just two goals in four games for on-fire [REDACTED]'s parent club

The on-loan [REDACTED] striker [REDACTED] is currently in the best goalscoring form of his professional career at [REDACTED].

[REDACTED]'s take on his side's encounter with [REDACTED] was quite clear: "[REDACTED] are a ruthless team that make the most of their opportunities. You have to be clinical to win football matches. We played well, there are positives we can take from our performance, and there are things we need to work on. We weren't ruthless enough in our finishing."

remató 16 veces. Pudo haber marcado más goles. Tuvo una tasa de conversión de un 33%. Por contra, el [REDACTED] tuvo seis remates, uno solo a puerta. Lejos de poder haber hecho daño real. No por falta de oportunidades, que las tuvo, sino por la falta de efectividad.

Un problema que en la temporada pasada lastró al [REDACTED] y que veremos si en la presente campaña se resuelve. Es irónico que en esta jornada de la Champions se haya visto un equipo rojiblanco con ese problema cuando un delantero del propio [REDACTED] se encuentra en su mejor momento como profesional.

Claro, pero no milita ahora mismo en el [REDACTED], sino en la [REDACTED]. En Italia destacan que [REDACTED] está 'on fire' ahora mismo. Tres goles en sus últimos dos partidos para marcar el mejor arranque goleador de su carrera en cuanto a ratio de goles marcados y minutos.

A lo mejor tiene que ver con el propio concepto de juego de unos y otros. Y no tanto de las cualidades de cada uno. El madrileño cumplió en el curso pasado, 16 goles y dos asistencias así lo demuestran. La falta de gol del [REDACTED] no fue precisamente su responsabilidad. Sin embargo fue él el que acabó saliendo en el mercado de verano porque no se pudo encontrar acomodo a [REDACTED], que ahora vuelve a estar lesionado.

En la [REDACTED], el [REDACTED] ha encontrado un equipo ofensivo que se está aprovechando de su potencial para marcar. El delantero español anotó en [REDACTED] y dos veces en el [REDACTED] y es el mejor hombre de [REDACTED]. Nunca antes en su carrera había marcado tres goles en tan pocos minutos de juego.

Por el momento el delantero español lleva una media de un gol por partido, con tres tantos en 238 minutos. Tomando como parámetro esas tres dianas, vemos que es una marca personal que solo se puede acercar en la primera temporada en el [REDACTED]. En la que marcó un gol cada 245.

The hammering suffered by [REDACTED] at the hands of the reigning European champions was down to their opponents being far more clinical in front of goal. [REDACTED] scored with four of their 16 efforts on goal, and could easily have got more, recording a shot conversion rate of 33%. However, only one of [REDACTED]'s six shots at goal was on target, barely troubling the opposition. They had the opportunities, but just didn't take them. They lacked clinical finishing.

This problem haunted them last season, so it will be interesting to see whether they find a solution to their goalscoring woes during the current campaign. It's ironic that [REDACTED] struggled to find the back of the net during this Champions League game, when one of their own strikers is currently in the best goalscoring form of his professional career on loan at [REDACTED].

Atletico could do with seeing Morata in red and white right now, who is "on fire" according to the Italian press. He's found the net three times in his last two games — the best form of his career to date if we look at his minutes-to-goal ratio.

Perhaps this is more to do with football being a team sport than his personal ability, as the Spaniard scored 16 goals and registered two assists last season. Nevertheless, although [REDACTED]'s lack of goals during the previous campaign wasn't exactly his fault, [REDACTED] was still shown the door during the summer transfer window, with [REDACTED], who is currently side-lined through injury, being preferred up top.

The [REDACTED]-born striker has found an attacking team in [REDACTED] that makes the most of its scoring opportunities. He got his name on the scoresheet in the draw at [REDACTED], he bagged himself a brace in the 2-0 victory over [REDACTED], and he is now [REDACTED]'s main man. Never before in his career has he scored three goals in such a short space of time.

The Spanish forward is currently averaging half a goal per game, having scored three in just 238 minutes. Only during his first season at [REDACTED]

Tourist-Train Audio Guide

Mesdames, Messieurs, chers petits visiteurs, bonjour et bienvenue à [REDACTED]. Nous sommes heureux de vous accueillir pour un voyage au cœur d'une ville qui allie dynamisme et tradition. Dominée par la Citadelle et le [REDACTED], cette cité de 52 000 habitants recèle nombre de richesses patrimoniales à visiter. Avec ses façades colorées, ses fortifications [REDACTED] et ses ruelles animées, la Vieille Ville de [REDACTED] se prête à la promenade en famille ou entre amis. Alors en route pour la découverte de la [REDACTED].

Depuis cet emplacement et en élevant votre regard, vous bénéficiez d'une vue imprenable sur la Citadelle et le [REDACTED] [REDACTED] achevé à l'automne 1880 mais inauguré seulement en 2011. Adossé au rocher, ce monument de 22 m de long et 11 m de haut est l'emblème de [REDACTED], le symbole de la liberté et de la résistance héroïque de la ville face à l'armée prussienne en 1870.

Notre circuit vous conduira à la Citadelle où vous pourrez plonger dans ses entrailles ou simplement admirer le panorama sur la ville et les collines environnantes. Pour l'heure, nous allons pénétrer dans l'enceinte pentagonale de [REDACTED] via un passage aménagé dans la muraille.

A la fin du 17<sup>ème</sup> siècle, alors que [REDACTED] est une bourgade seigneuriale dont la position stratégique, entre Vosges et Jura et entre Alsace et Bourgogne, lui confère une position naturelle de passage, le roi LOUIS XIV confie à l'ingénieur [REDACTED] le projet de fortifier la Ville.

La rampe qui conduit à la Citadelle a été aménagée par le [REDACTED] en 1822, comme la porte d'entrée du pont-levis empruntée par le train touristique. Par ce

Ladies and gentlemen, boys and girls, hello and welcome to [REDACTED]. We are delighted to welcome you on a journey through the heart of our dynamic, traditional city. Overlooked by the citadel and [REDACTED] [REDACTED], there are many heritage treasures to explore in this city of 52,000 people. With its colourful facades, fortifications designed by [REDACTED], and bustling narrow streets, the old town of [REDACTED] is an ideal place to stroll around with family or friends. Let's now discover the "[REDACTED]."

If you look up from this point, you will have a clear view of the citadel and [REDACTED] [REDACTED], which, despite being completed in the autumn of 1880, was only first opened to the public in 2011. Backing onto a rocky outcrop, this 22m-long and 11-m tall monument represents the emblem of [REDACTED], the symbol of the city's freedom and heroic resistance in the face of the Prussian army in 1870.

Our tour will lead you all the way to the citadel, where you can explore its finer details or simply admire the view of the city and the surrounding hills. For now, we will use a passageway to make our way through [REDACTED]'s pentagonal city wall.

In the late 17th Century, a time when [REDACTED] served as a small feudal city due to its strategic location between the Vosges and Jura mountain ranges, and Alsace and Burgundy, the city naturally became a point of passage. King Louis XIV therefore entrusted the military engineer [REDACTED] with the task of fortifying [REDACTED].

The approach to the citadel, the entrance gate and the drawbridge our train crosses were built by [REDACTED] in 1822. The drawbridge and gate will take us around the [REDACTED]. All the structures between the [REDACTED] and the Nous vous conseillons aussi la visite du Musée d'Histoire qui outre les nombreux objets caractéristiques de la vie militaire et de l'histoire locale, réserve un vaste espace muséographique à [REDACTED], le célèbre sculpteur du [REDACTED].

Nous allons longer les quais de la [REDACTED]. A votre droite l'Octroi. Cette maisonnette de briques roses était le lieu de passage obligé des marchands qui y faisaient peser leurs produits avant de payer l'octroi perçu par la ville.

La promenade en petit train s'achève ici. Nous vous souhaitons un agréable séjour dans notre Ville où nous vous invitons à flâner et à découvrir ses atouts tel que son terroir. Outre le vieux [REDACTED], le charme de ses ruelles, ses curiosités et la qualité architecturale de ses bâtiments, vous pourrez découvrir le [REDACTED] moderne avec ses grands magasins, ses galeries marchandes et ses rues piétonnes.

Si vous préférez les espaces naturels, vous ne serez pas en reste. Notre département attire par sa nature préservée et permet aux visiteurs d'observer les contrastes surprenants des couleurs des forêts, des teintes de vert et de bleu des lacs et rivières.
